2024 UC Santa Barbara Alumni Awards Banquet

In my work, I encourage a closer examination of what goes unnoticed and unappreciated in the world around us, and call attention to the joys of looking. I find many ordinary events and objects to be remarkable, and enjoy uncovering the strange beauty that can be found in unexpected places. In painting the world from a different vantage point, the ordinary becomes strange and the old becomes new, ushering in a new life for that which is impermanent and fleeting.
